

COFLT HONOR ROLL FOR TEACHERS - CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Submission Deadline: August 30, 2009

The Confederation in Oregon for Language Teaching (COFLT) invites you to join in our 37th annual search for worthy individuals to be honored for outstanding teaching of languages and/or contributions to the study of languages in Oregon. Please give careful thought to this program and check for the following qualifications.

1. A nominee must be a current COFLT member.
2. A nominee for category 1 or 2 must be currently teaching any language to non-native speakers. This restriction does not apply to category 3.
3. An individual making the nomination must be professionally associated with the nominee.

COFLT Honor Roll Awards Categories - (Check only one)

- Category 1 The Loretta Wollett Award for outstanding teaching at the K-12 level.
 Category 2 The Magdalena Ladd Award for outstanding teaching at the College level.
 Category 3 The Ray Verzasconi Award for outstanding contribution to the language teaching profession.

Name of Nominee _____	Email _____
School/Organization _____	Position _____
Work Address _____	Phone _____
Home Address _____	Phone _____
Nominator's Name _____	Email _____
School/Organization _____	Position _____
Work Address _____	Phone _____
Home Address _____	Phone _____

With this form please submit the following documents, not exceeding 10 pages.

1. Your statement of reasons for nominating this person, including his/her teaching performance, contributions to the language program at her/his school, or other outstanding activities.
2. Nominee's current curriculum vitae including academic background, positions held, professional service or accomplishment and/or publications.
3. Two or more letters of recommendation in support of this nomination.
4. Other materials demonstrating the nominee's outstanding achievements.

Please submit the nomination form(s), and accompanying documents (limited to ten total pages) to:

COFLT Nominations
PO Box 111
Salem, OR 97308-0111

Email inquiries to: cofltweb@gmail.com or mail them to the address above.